

The TS... where intellect and intuition meet.

Why attend a program at the TS?

Come by the TS for a workshop, lecture, study group or meditation and:

- connect with other spiritual seekers
- learn better ways of relating to yourself and others
- explore your spiritual potential
- investigate unexplained mysteries of nature

Why hold an event at the TS?

We encourage presenters and practitioners to consider using the TS for an upcoming event. An oasis in the heart of the city, the TS facilities offer an intimate setting and relaxed atmosphere.

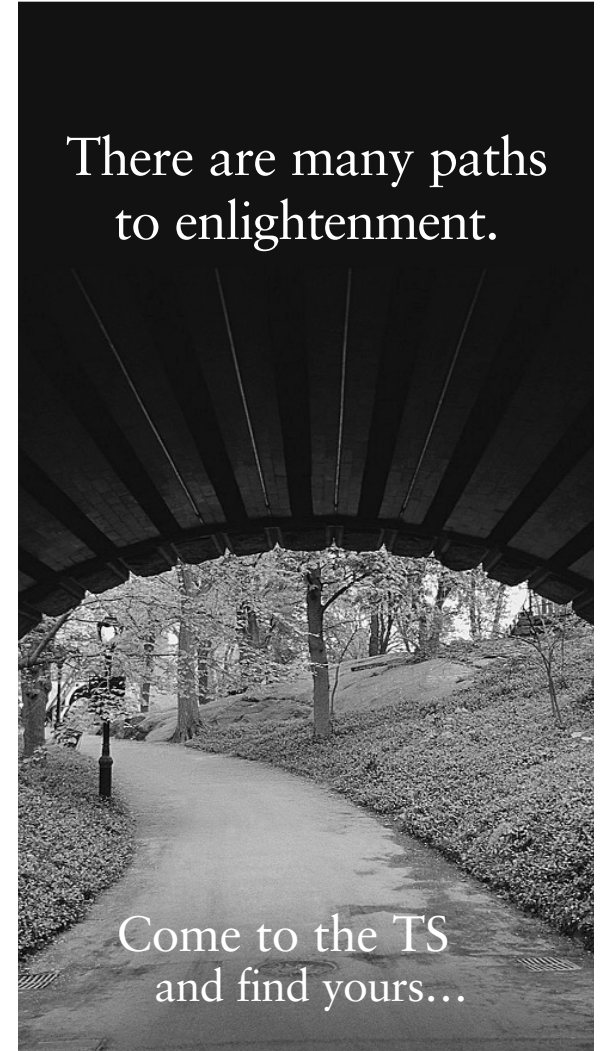

We have rooms available to accommodate both group and individual sessions.

We have free parking, are close to public transportation and local restaurants, and are ADA accessible.

Philosophy and Spiritual Practices

What is the Theosophical Society?

Theosophy means “Divine Wisdom” or “Ageless Wisdom.” Its teachings reflect traditions found in human cultures all over the world.

In 1875, Helena P. Blavatsky began the modern theosophical movement in New York City when she published writings which proclaimed that certain truths could be found in common in all great religions throughout the world.

The Theosophical Society in Boston (the “TS”) was founded in 1922 as part of the international Theosophical Society, headquartered in India. In 1993, heeding M. Blavatsky’s warning not to turn her own writings into a hard-and-fast dogma, the Theosophical Society in Boston became an independent, non-profit organization and a year later moved to Arlington.

The TS is a center of learning where people can explore, with freedom of thought and inquiry, many philosophies and spiritual practices. The TS offers a wide range of lectures, workshops study groups and meditation practices.

The goal of the programs presented at the TS is to promote ways in which all of us can communicate and cooperate with each other. As part of this goal, we

- seek universal truth;
- honor and respect other spiritual points of view as well as those who hold them; and
- recognize that each and every one of us are expressions of the same life and that our well-being is linked: whatever happens to one of us happens to all of us.
